

Treasury Department,

BUREAU OF THE MINT,

Washington, D. C., February 28, 1889.

Hon. Daniel M. Fox,
Superintendent U. S. Mint, Philadelphia.

Sir:

A report on the recent count, at my request, of the cash accounts of the mint at Philadelphia reveals an irregularity in the matter of receiving "deposits from a distance," contrary to sections 15, 16, 17 and 18 of Article 1 of the Regulations. Enclosed find copy of an extract from the report referred to.

Respectfully yours,

Director of the Mint.

Report of Cash account of the Mint at Phila.
reveals an irregularity
in the matter of receiving
"Deposits from a Distance."
Enclosed find Extracts from Report referred to.

Mutilated coin is received at the Mint in sums of not less than three dollars, nominal x x x x x x x x x x x x x x x

Such deposits from a distance are received by the Weigh Clerk, weighed, estimated, and check drawn to the order of the Cashier "for use of depositor," whose name and the letter of advice accompanying deposit, are given to the Cashier. The latter keeps a deposit account with a national bank solely for the accommodation of such depositors, and at once deposits the sum or sums named on check or checks, and draws his own check as Cashier in favor of the depositor to whom the check is forwarded by mail.

[Enclosed note:]

Mutilated..... coin is received at the Mint in sums of not less than three dollars, nominal x x x x x x x x x x x x x

Such deposits from a distance are received by the Weigh Clerk, weighed, estimated, and check drawn to the order of the Cashier "for use of depositor," whose name and the letter of advice accompanying deposit, are given to the Cashier. The latter keeps a deposit account with a national bank solely for the accommodation of such depositors, and at once deposits the sum or sums named on check or checks, and draws his own check as Cashier in favor of the depositor to whom the check is forwarded by mail.
